

Mission Knowledge

www.missionknowledge.se

Participant	Preliminary project title
Ann-Christine Baar	Senior health 2.0
Ann-Marie Thordeman	Rather dialogue and trust than control. How to attend what cannot be measured with statistics?
Bodil Lindeberg	Reading aloud for people with dementia: Aspects of well-being (for listeners and readers) by voluntary activities in housings for people with dementia.
Britt Mari Ligne Carlsson	Identify and respond to vulnerable older people in ordinary housing for to achieve participation in health promotion by conversation. A collaborative model for local authorities and primary care.
Britta Stenstam	A medical, ethical and pedagogical challenge: earlier than today offer patients with non-curable cancer access to palliative care, focusing on symptom relief, not tumor treatment.
Gerd Silk	Collaboration for the individual's best - promoting factors for meetings where the patient's perspective is most important.
Gunilla Ehrlinder	Implement good individual care with sustainability for people with incontinence. Better: Implement good and sustainable individual care for people with incontinence.
Göran Maathz	Getting help to recover oneself from acute event like stroke, heart attack, hip fracture.
Irene Hedfors	How legislation and political ambition/ engagement makes life better for the most sick elderly in Kronoberg - monitoring and evaluation.
Karin Andersson	Meaningful conversations in elderly care. Broadening of dialogue and a growing understanding of its importance.
Katri Helena Alaja	Physical activity - health for the elderly. How to motivate inactive older people to physical activity? How to link the supply to demand from/needs of inactive elderly? What is needed to do that more elderly be interested in physical activity and enjoy to exercise?
Kristina Ekstrand	Changing in health culture - simple advices how to create conditions for a creative working place which is open for changes.

Contact Mission Knowledge

The Swedish Institute for Health Sciences (Vårdalinstitutet) • Magnus Persson • Lund University • Box 187 • 221 00 LUND •

Tel: 0046-46-222 19 85 • E-mail: magnus_c.persson@med.lu.se

The Swedish Association of Local Authorities and Regions (SKL) • Maj Rom • 118 82 STOCKHOLM •

Tel: 0046-8-452 76 02 • E-mail: maj.rom@skl.se

Lena Ekmark	Can older people's use of technological advances affect the staff's views on the elderly?
Lillemor Husberg	What does prohibit the spreading of good examples in elderly care? The importance of affirming the complex entirety. Creativity and rationality.
Malgorzata Szmidt	Strategies for the prevention of suicide of elderly – developing a method.
Margareta Jansson	How to create continuity/ routine in meetings of/ between care assistants and older people who require lifetime care and therapy?
Siv Bäck-Pettersson	How to create continuity/ routine in meetings of/ between care assistants and older people who require lifetime care and therapy?
Sonja Strandell	How to create dialogue and participation in the conversation with an elderly patient? What factors are important? Can evidence-based dialogue-models be helpful and what's their purpose/ intention ?
Sven-Erik Henriksson	The existential significance of conversation in elderly care for both the quality of the elderlies' life as an increased understanding and capability in nursing.